About
If you are a Georgia Southern undergraduate student with exemplary work from Foundation level courses, then you are invited to participate in the 2017 Juried Exhibition of Art Foundations: Form & Content. You can submit up to FIVE (5) artworks from foundation studio courses completed during the following terms: Summer 2016, Fall 2016 and Spring 2017. Art foundations courses include Drawing I, Drawing II, 2-Dimensional Design and 3-Dimensional Design. We ask that you submit no more than three (3) works from a single course. We look forward to seeing your new and recent artworks, and thank you for your consideration in participating in this year’s exhibition. We have included important information for you to review below, so please take a moment to examine this Prospectus before completing your form.

Juror
Naomi Falk studied sculpture and ceramics at Michigan State and Portland State Universities, and received an MFA from Carnegie Mellon University. She has exhibited regionally and nationally, and has done residencies across the US and Europe. Falk is an Assistant Professor of Sculpture at the University of South Carolina. In her work, Falk contemplates our relationships to place and investigates how physical participation engages a deeper response and a broader understanding of materials, spaces, and relationships.

IMPORTANT DATES
