The Department of Foreign Languages at Georgia Southern University has a limited-term Instructor of French position open for which we seek to make a hire for the 2019-20 academic year. This position is located on the Armstrong campus in Savannah. If you know of someone who is interested, please share this position description with them.

At Georgia Southern, limited-term instructors normally teach fifteen credit hours per semester, hold regular office hours, and participate in departmental and sectional meetings and activities. Collegiality is essential. All limited-term positions are non-tenure track, academic-year (9/10 month) appointments. Appointments are for one year only, although there is the possibility of reappointment should funding permit and based upon satisfactory performance. The second year would be a terminal year, without exceptions. The salary is $35,000 plus benefits. The salary is not negotiable. Moving expenses are not included.

Required Qualifications:
- Earned master’s or doctoral degree in French, or in a closely related field with at least 18 graduate semester hours in courses related to French or to the teaching of French as a foreign language, by July 1, 2019.
- Native or near-native proficiency in oral and written French and English.
- Must be authorized to work in the United States for the duration of employment without assistance from the institution.

Preferred Qualifications:
- Experience in a French-speaking environment outside the USA
- Experience teaching French to non-French speakers
- Experience with proficiency-oriented instruction and with the ACTFL Proficiency Standards

We will begin screening applications as they are received. The position starts on August 1, 2019. Please ask interested candidates to send a complete application, consisting of a letter addressing the qualifications cited above, including a verifiable statement regarding authorization to work, unassisted, in the US; a curriculum vitae; and the names, addresses, telephone numbers, and email addresses of at least three professional references.
