PALLBEARERS
Grandsons and Nephews

FLOWER BEARERS
Friends and Family

TESTIMONY

I am moving up home someday.
I am moving up home someday.
I am moving up home someday.
I am going away to heaven to stay.
I am moving up home some day.

We have trials and great tribulation.
Jesus said they would be on our way.
But if we endure and be faithful,
We could move on up home some day.

No taxes, no rent to pay.
Oh, that is a beautiful city.
I am moving up home some day.

Arrangements
Sterling McCullough Williams Funeral Home
632 Belmont Avenue
Youngstown, Ohio

"HOME GOING SERVICE"
IN LOVING MEMORY OF

EDNA MAE TERRELL
1910-1996

Friday, September 27, 1996
9:00 A.M.

Himrod Church of God
1339 Himrod Avenue
Youngstown, Ohio 44506

Rev. Catherine Rexford, Officiating
OBITUARY

Mrs. Edna Mae Terrell, daughter of the late Benjamin and Maggie Burns Hall, was born June 28, 1910 in Statesboro, Georgia. She was called from labor to reward Monday, September 23, in the St. Elizabeth Health Center in Youngstown, Ohio.

She was a school teacher in Bullock County, Georgia in 1929. She moved to Youngstown, Ohio on June 1, 1934. She lived at 539 Foster Street.

Mrs. Terrell received Jesus Christ as her personal Saviour and joined the Arlington Street Church of God congregation, which is now the Himrod Avenue Church of God. She has faithfully served God in the local church as an usher, choir member, secretary and stewardship of the missionary society, and taught Sunday School for 56 years. She had the distinction of being the first to serve as an usher at the Arlington Street Church of God.

She was united in marriage to the late William Rush Terrell, July 19, 1937. A son, Ronald Jackson Person Terrell was adopted August 1942 and died January 23, 1992.

She leaves with heavy hearts two grandsons; Anthony Tony Haywood of Chicago, Illinois and Sterling Haywood of Columbus, Ohio; six great grandchildren; her legal guardian, Mrs. Edna White of Youngstown; a god-sister, Mrs. Frances Parker of Youngstown, Ohio; a god-child, Mrs. Adrienne Croft of Columbus, Ohio; nieces, nephews, the Himrod Avenue Church of God church family, neighbours, friends, and three sister-in-laws; Mrs. Mobile Dukes of Cincinnati, Ohio, Mrs. Nora Hall of Youngstown, Ohio, and Mrs. Zelena Hall of Los Angeles, California.

Her brothers: Ben, Lenwood, Hartaret, Garfield, Colquett, Cleveland, Thedrae, Ravenell, Henry, Booker T., and Alphonso, and sisters: Euleigh, Pearl, Queen Victoria, and twin sister Earda Mae all preceded her in death.

Order of Service

Opening Remarks..........................Pastor Catherine Rexford

Selection..................O How I Love Jesus..........................Choir

Prayer..................................Rev. Catherine Lockhart

Scripture..................Old Testament...Psalm 23.....Rev. Melissa Wolfe
New Testament...John 14:1-6.....Rev. Judy Eiland

Selection..................Oh I Want To See Him..........................Choir

As I Knew Her:

As a Faithful Member..................Deaconess Mattie Alston
As a Sunday School Teacher..........Deaconess Esther Adair

Acknowledgment of Cards, Condolences,
Reading of the Obituary.................Deaconess Mattie Alston

Selection........ When the Gate Swings Open I'll Walk In ....Choir

Eulogy..................................Rev. Catherine Rexford

Recessional..........................Bro. George Weaver

The family would like to thank all who have expressed sympathy and condolence during this time of bereavement.

Family of Edna Mae Terrell

Interment

Tod Homestead Cemetery
2200 Avenue Belmont
Youngstown, Ohio